

SEEKING VOLUNTEER SUPERVISORS!!!
Experienced in Treating Traumatized Adults and Children
In our Brookline, MA Office

Are you looking for a way to be part of a larger trauma community? Do you crave opportunities to learn more about trauma, its aftereffects, and treatment interventions? Consider becoming a volunteer supervisor at The Trauma Center at JRI. We are looking for committed supervisors interested in joining a stimulating and supportive community of professionals, dedicated to serving children, adults and families impacted by trauma & life adversity, and receiving extensive training opportunities to expand their expertise.

Eligible Candidates must:

- Have at least 10 years of post-school/training experience conducting therapy, have worked in an outpatient setting for at least 1 year, and have worked with traumatized adults and children
- Have prior experience supervising clinical work
- Be able to commit 3-4 hours per week (2 hours of supervision, 1 ½ hours of clinical team, monthly supervisor group)
- Be an MA-licensed LICSW, LMHC, Ph.D. or Psy.D.

The Trauma Center/MBHC offers you the following:

- Weekly Clinical Team Meeting
- State-of-the-Art Training
- Free and reduced-cost Seminars and Conferences
- Opportunities for Research
- Highly skilled Team members

If you have questions, please contact Dr. Alexandra Cook (617) 232-1303 x216. To apply, send a letter of interest and resume/CV to Dr. Alexandra Cook, Associate Director at the Trauma Center at the address below, or by email at: acook@jri.org.

JRI is an equal opportunity employer and actively seeks candidates from diverse backgrounds including women, communities of color, the LGBT community and people with disabilities.
