

HUMAN TRAFFICKING AWARENESS DAY

1.11.11

HOW TO GET INVOLVED

Report suspected trafficking

Save the national trafficking hotline number in your cell phone (1-888-373-7888), learn more about the crime, develop a trafficking “lens” so you can learn to see the signs, and report suspected trafficking.

“Invite a speaker from a local organization”

Contact HumanTraffickingStudents@gmail.com or Audrey@NotForSaleCampaign.org with a description of your desired event and we are happy to recommend speaker options for you, and to connect you with potential speakers where possible.

“Read a book, hold a documentary screening...”

Click here or go to <http://www.endslaverynow.com/?goto=media§ion=resources> for a listing of books, videos and, films.

“...write a blog or an editorial”

Click here or go to <http://thedailyreviewer.com/top/slavery> for a listing of top slavery blogs.

“Use Google alerts to send news about trafficking and slavery to your email.”

Go to <http://www.google.com/alerts> to learn how to set alerts. Solid search terms include modern slavery, human trafficking, trafficking, child prostitution, CSEC or commercial sexual exploitation of children, and slavery.

“Tell your legislators to take action - Massachusetts is currently one of five states that has failed to pass anti-trafficking legislation.”

Click here or go to <http://www.malegislature.gov/People/FindMyLegislator>, find your local Senate and House representatives and write them with a request to ensure that strong victim-centered anti-human trafficking legislation is passed in Massachusetts this year.

“Get involved with a local organization”

Local anti-trafficking organizations are dramatically underfunded compared to the mission. Many of them depend on donations of time and money. Below is a list of ways to get involved with local organizations. You are also invited to contact any organization and ask to be added to their listserv.
